BARRY WYNER

Award Winning
Composer & Lyricist

Barry has won the Kleban Prize, Noel Coward Prize, Jerry Bock Award, and Richard Rodgers Award for his work in musical theater. His musical Calvin Berger, a loose adaptation of Cyrano De Bergerac set in a high school, is published by Tams-Witmark Music Library. It has been produced at Gloucester Stage, Barrington Stage, George Street Playhouse (dir. by 3-time Tony Winner Kathleen Marshall), and many other theaters across the U.S. and internationally. Its original cast album, on the prestigious Ghostlight/Sh-K-Boom record label, can be heard on iTunes, Spotify, etc. Songs from Calvin Berger have been performed by Broadway stars like Neil Patrick Harris, Aaron Tveit, Jeremy Jordan, and Laura Osnes. Barry also wrote two commissioned children's musicals that are currently touring the Tri-State area and Texas: Austin The Unstoppable, about childhood obesity, and Gabi Goes Green!, about climate change. Barry is Choral Director at Lynbrook High School, where he leads a chorus of over 150 students. He most recently "produced" two beautiful children, Levi (2) and Chloe (2 months), after winning over his wife, Emilee, with a marriage proposal on stage at the Broadway production of Cinderella (check it out on Youtube!).
