URI COHEN

Executive Director of the

Slifka Center for Jewish Life at Yale University

Immediate-Past Executive of Queens College Hillel

Slifka
Center for Jewish Life at Yale

Uri is the Executive Director of Hillel - the Joseph Slifka Center for Jewish Life - at Yale University. His appointment there in August 2018 follows a seven-year tenure in the same role at Queens College Hillel in the City University of New York. Prior to coming to Hillel, Uri held positions at the Solomon decades' experience in fundraising, community relations, and leadership. Even in his new post, Uri continues to be involved with Jewish life at Queens College and works to raise awareness of the need for thriving Jewish life to serve the 13,000+ Jewish students currently enrolled at CUNY campuses.

Hillel
Queens College

Uri grew up in Bayside, Queens, and is a life-long New Yorker. He went to public school in Bayside and the Bronx High School of Science. He attended the University of Pennsylvania as an undergraduate, majoring in Jewish Studies, graduating Magna Cum Laude. He also holds a Master of Public Administration degree from New York University's Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service. He is a graduate of the Day School Leadership Training Institute and serves on the Board of his Conservative Synagogue, Temple Israel Center in White Plains, where he lives with his wife, Stacey, and son, Noah.
