Education Committee

Assemblywoman Nily Rozic represents New York's 25th District, which spans the Eastern portion of Queens, including the communities of Flushing, Queensboro Hill, Hillcrest, Fresh Meadows, Oakland Gardens, Bayside, and Douglaston. Upon her election in 2012, Assemblywoman Rozic became the youngest woman in the state legislature and the first woman ever to represent the 25th District.

In 2017, Nily was named as chair of the Task Force on Women's Issues. She is currently the Secretary of the Assembly Majority Conference. Nily serves on the Assembly's Ways & Means, Labor, Environmental Conservation, Correction, Corporations, Authorities and Commissions, and Consumer Affairs and Protection Committees. She is a member of the Black, Puerto Rican, Hispanic & Asian Legislative Caucus and the Puerto Rican/Hispanic Task Force.

Nily is focused on serving Queens' day-to-day needs for services and fighting for key quality-of-life issues in her district. In Albany, Nily is an outspoken advocate for working and middle class families, immigrant communities, and students, and she has already sponsored and passed legislation aimed at revitalizing New York's environment, expanding government transparency, and strengthening the state's workforce development system. She is also committed to social justice, equality and opportunity for all.
